

As part of the Perfect Game Sunshine Rocky Mountain Showcase in Castle Rock, CO on May 31 and June 1, I've been invited to meet with parents for a free 15-minute college recruiting assessment. This is a resource provided to help families better understand the recruiting process and where their athlete stands in it.

We'll talk through important topics like:

- When the recruiting process really begins
- How and when coaches start communicating with athletes
- The best ways to gain exposure and get noticed
- How recent NCAA changes are impacting families like yours

Your athlete does not need to be present for this meeting — most will be on the field participating during that time. These assessments are designed specifically for parents to help you feel confident and informed as you support your child's goals.

For the past 17 years, I've been working with athletes, families, and coaches across the country — helping them navigate the ever-changing recruiting landscape and make informed decisions throughout the process.

I'll be available for meetings on-site all day Friday, May 31, and the morning of Saturday, June 1. Space is limited, so I recommend booking early to get a time that works for you.

I look forward to meeting you and being a helpful resource while you're at the Showcase.
