

Daily Leaders

Andres Aybar, FTB Figueroa 13u

In a day where pitching stood out the most, this young man collected 4 hits, tying the daily lead, one being a triple. Knocking in a couple of RBIs thanks to those hits helped his team go 1-0-1 on the day.

Ezekiel Aguilera, FTB Figueroa 13u

Pitching and hitting. Tied his teammate for the daily lead in hit with 4 and then went and dominated on the mound. Stole a couple of base and struck out a couple of batters while shutting out his opponent over 2 2/3 innings. Have yourself a day in the box and on the mound.

Logan Szejter, Suns

Speed can really hurt other teams. The top team out of Saturday was helped by this young man stealing 5 bases! That's right 5 stolen bases in 2 games. Opposing catchers better watch out when he is on the bags, you know what is coming, but will you be able to stop him?

Jaxon Junnila, Orlando Scorpions 13u Dore

He may have only pitched 2 1/3 inning, but he dominated! Striking out 5 and not allowing a run. He showed great potential and decent command by only allowing 2 walks. This stud definitely put his team in position to win, all while showing he can be pretty unhittable at times.

Matt Perez, South Florida Hitmen

When you go out and throw 4 shut out innings while only giving up 1 hit, you are definitely going to turn some heads. The term pitch to contact was put on display today. He did not strike out a batter but strike outs aren't everything as you can see here, outs are and he got plenty of them.

Reid Williams, Team Orlando Bolts

Here we have another case where a young stud comes on the mound and pitches to contact. Over 4 innings, Williams only gave up 2 hits and just 1 walk. Did I also mention those 4 innings were shutout baseball? Don't forget he also struck out a batter to show he has nasty stuff too.
