

An aerial photograph of a sports complex. A bright green path starts from a parking lot at the bottom left, curves around a large building with a blue pool, and ends at a green star on the right side of a baseball field. The baseball field is green with a brown infield. To the right of the field are several tennis courts with blue and red surfaces. A road curves around the top and right sides of the complex. A white box with the text 'Rock' is visible on the right side.
